

TPN (Total Parental Nutrition)

Physician orders prior to admission:

- PICC or central line placement
- IV nutrition
- Monitor of I/O's
- Weekly blood work orders

What Miller's can provide:

- TPN solution through our RX provider
- Nursing trained in PICC or central line care
- I/O monitoring in our Electronic Medical Record
- Ongoing nursing assessments looking at:
  - Hydration status
  - Skin condition
  - Strength/Endurance of patient
  - Overall health of patient
- Multidisciplinary approach of care with a dedicated team of Nurses, Therapists, Dietary, and In-Touch Pharmacist support.
- Educational resources
- Lab draws weekly to determine nutritional adequacy to include:
  - CMP (Complete Metabolic Panel) to monitor electrolytes, protein, liver function and acid-base balance
  - CBC with differential to monitor protein utilization and infection
  - Triglycerides, Zinc, Magnesium, and Phosphate